

University of Colorado
Anschutz Medical Campus
Graduate Medical Education

Office of Graduate Medical Education
Mailstop C293 13001 E. 17th Place
Aurora, Colorado 80045
Phone: 303-724-6031
Fax: 303-724-6034

GME Quality and Safety Incentive Program Eligibility:

GME Residents and Fellows are eligible to participate in the GME Partnership for Quality and Safety Program provided they meet the following criteria:

Must be a Resident/Fellow in a CU GME training program

Includes: Denver Health Emergency Medicine, Pediatric Chiefs

Excludes Pharmacy, Dentistry, and any other programs not approved by GMEC.

Must be on GME payroll

Excludes Zero Compensation Trainees, Military-Funded Residents/Fellows or any whose contracts prohibit them from receiving monetary awards, and Instructor Fellows whose primary appointment is in another department.

Must be in good academic standing

Excludes Residents/Fellows on probation during the time of payout.

Must have patient care responsibilities

Excludes most research Residents/Fellows not participating in patient care.

Must be resident/fellow at time of payout (June 2024) and start by August 2023.