

Graduate Medical Education

SCHOOL OF MEDICINE

UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO ANSCHUTZ MEDICAL CAMPUS

Office of Graduate Medical Education

Mailstop C293 13001 E. 17th Place

Aurora, Colorado 80045

Phone: 303-724-6031

Fax: 303-724-6034

GME Quality and Safety Incentive Program Eligibility:

GME Residents and Fellows are eligible to participate in the GME Partnership for Quality and Safety Program provided they meet the following criteria:

Must be a Resident/Fellow in a CU GME training program

Includes: Denver Health Emergency Medicine, Denver Community Health Services Family Medicine, Pediatric Chiefs

Excludes Pharmacy, Dentistry, and any other programs not approved by GMEC.

Must be on GME payroll

Excludes Zero Compensation Trainees, Military-Funded Residents/Fellows or any whose contracts prohibit them from receiving monetary awards, and Instructor Fellows whose primary appointment is in another department.

Must be in good academic standing

Excludes Residents/Fellows on probation during the time of payout.

Must have patient care responsibilities

Excludes most research Residents/Fellows not participating in patient care.

Must be resident/fellow at time of payout (June 2026) and start by August 2025.