

Modern Human Anatomy | Capstone Poster Presentation Scoring Form

Student presenter name: _____

Project Category: Bench ____ Clinical ____ Education ____

Judge name: _____

Poster presentations will be judged using the following criteria, totaling 60 points:

Criterion	Max Points	Score
Originality of work <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Innovative project approach • Unique project outcome / deliverable • Student's contribution to project was evident 	10
Poster aesthetics <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Organization clear and easy to follow • Visually appealing, high quality images • Meaningful and effective use of Figures/Tables • Succinct and easy-to-read text 	10
Stage presence <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Student exhibits high level of professionalism • Good time management • Maintained eye contact with audience • Spoke clearly, naturally and with enthusiasm 	10
Scholarship (rationale / value of work) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Background rationale for project was clearly defined • Project objectives / aims were clearly stated • Project objectives were met / addressed • Described implications and impact of work 	10
Scholarship (scientific / educational merit) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Project approach appropriate for proposed questions • Results were clear and logically linked to project questions • Statistical analysis appropriate for study • Limitations and future directions were discussed 	10
Breadth of knowledge <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Clearly answered questions posed by poster visitors • Discussion of project and implications was clear and logical • Clearly able to discuss related topics beyond scope of project 	10
TOTAL SCORE	60	