

PANTRY VOLUNTEER INFORMATION

Village Pantry: Specializing in providing culturally appropriate groceries, meals and hygiene supplies to refugees and immigrants from different countries, the Village Pantry is a distribution partner with Food Bank of the Rockies currently serving an average of 200 families per week which is equivalent to an average of 561 individuals/week. Since the start of 2022, the Village Pantry has served 1,193 unique/unduplicated households or 3,576 individuals. The Village Pantry is located at 1609 Havana St., Aurora, CO 80010. The Village Pantry relies on volunteers to successfully continue operating.

FAQ ON VOLUNTEERING AT THE PANTRY

What dress attire is appropriate?

We ask that volunteers wear comfortable clothing and closed toed shoes.

What can I expect to do during my shift at the pantry?

Volunteers assist with a variety of duties depending on the day and time of the shift. Generally, volunteers will help with the unloading of food truck, packaging produce and dry food bags, packaging dry food items in individual bags, cleaning and sorting out our storage and refrigeration area.

What type of physical activity is required?

In general, frequent lifting, bending and standing is needed however, we can make any necessary accommodations for individuals who are unable to do a large amount of physical activity.