Professional Development Pro Tip

In the mood to learn? For free?

CU on Coursera offers over 100 Coursera courses taught by faculty across the CU four campus system. CU-curated courses are available at no cost to all faculty, staff, and students.

Coursera is the world's largest MOOC (massive open online course) provider, with a learner population of nearly 40 million.

Among the key features:

- Courses feature interactive videos, readings and resources
- Practice exercises and graded assessments evaluate knowledge and provide feedback
- Short courses, typically three to six weeks, taken at your own pace
- Flexible and adaptive schedule to meet your learning needs

Join the DFM team as we volunteer at Food Bank of the Rockies.
