Humans of Family Medicine

A new social media campaign highlights and celebrates the stories of our Family Medicine colleagues.

It's called Humans of Family Medicine.

Created and curated by medical student members of the Family Medicine Interest Group.

It's live NOW on Instagram and coming soon to Twitter.

Dr. Kyle Knierim in the Washington Post!

Okay... so, we shared this in a recent DFM UPDATE. But, it's worth sharing again.

Our own Kyle Knierim was interviewed for a national story on the exponential growth of telemedicine in the era of COVID-19.

Thanks for representing DFM so well, Kyle!

DFM Connects for COVID-19

Our Department of Family Medicine is providing leadership and innovation in these trying times.

Our faculty and staff are reaching out to form collaborations, provide resources, and listen to what our community needs.

Important work in uncertain times that is proving invaluable. Paving the way to life beyond COVID-19.

Professional Development Pro Tip!

CU employees can now apply for the Tuition Assistance Benefit for the summer 2020 semester.

Qualified employees can save on up to nine credits per academic year (fall through summer), and their children, spouses and other dependents have several options to save on tuition costs.

More Ways to Give Now

Payroll deduction - One-time gift -
Planned giving.
