AAFP National Conference July 29-31 VIRTUAL This Year!

The AAFP National Conference is a highly anticipated, annual event to bring Family Medicine physicians together for education, networking, and residency program interaction. This year, the AAFP has decided to make the conference a virtual event after considering public health and safety as well as uncertainties with what travel restrictions will look like. The conference will take place July 29-31, 2021. We will share more info as we get closer!

“Something I really like about family medicine is the fact that even among the 13 people in my year, none of us are going to be doing the exact same thing. Family medicine has so many opportunities and you can really map what you want to do to make it fulfilling for you. So you don't have to fit into a certain box.

I think that provides patients with so many different types of physicians and we can really work to empower communities because we're trying to embrace all of the differences that you see by the creating multiple different types of positions that [we] fill as family medicine providers. That's really unique to us as family medicine doctors.” - Shawnecca Burke, MD

NETWORKING

Family Medicine Resident Mentoring

For students interested in resident and/or faculty mentors, this is an informal program with the hope of being mutually beneficial to all parties involved. The goal is to help med students have a better understanding of family physicians and to help students succeed whether they decide family medicine is the right specialty for them or not.

We ask that mentors and mentees meet at least once a semester. Please fill out the quick form below so that we can best pair you with a good fit. If you are interested, sign up here.

For more information, questions, or concerns, please contact Cleveland Piggott, MD.
