

SOCIAL MEDIA

Sometimes we might struggle with posting online, fear of posting something offensive, fear of posting something and being judged, or even just being perceived by other people.

Social media can bring up a number of compulsions and OCD fears related to social anxiety, perfectionism, body image concerns, harm themes, moral scupulosity, or just right concerns.

SHOUTOUT TO PARLOR DOUGHNUTS FOR PROVIDING US WITH THESE TASTY TREATS

We love businesses that support mental health awareness. Show them some love by tagging them in a post or story on your social media!
