

Young Adults with Cancer Support Group

A Free Virtual Group for Ages 18-40

This virtual drop-in group is open to young adults with any type of cancer.

Join us in learning and sharing strategies for coping with the emotional and social impact of cancer. Connect with others who might have similar challenges that come along with having cancer as a young adult.

This group is facilitated by Cancer Centers of Colorado Oncology Social Worker Ben Gaibel, LCSW at Good Samaritan Medical Center.

When:

1st and 3rd Tuesday of the Month
1:00 - 2:00 p.m.

Location:

All sessions will be online and interactive through Google Meet. Participants will need a computer, smart phone, or tablet with an internet connection. Use of a video device is recommended.

To register or for more information, please contact Ben at 303-673-1620.
