GRAND ROUNDS: MODERATED PANEL

“COVID-19 and the Economy: Considerations for Patients and Providers”

Wednesday October 21st, 2020, 12:00pm-1:00pm
Join Webinar: https://ucdenver.zoom.us/j/92961649515

Economic Cycles: Implications for Households, Markets & Policy Responses
Anne Libby, PhD
Dr. Anne Libby is Professor and Vice Chair for Academic Affairs in the Department of Emergency Medicine. Dr. Libby built a national reputation patient-oriented outcomes research studying the organization and financing of health care systems, particularly on behavioral health and underserved populations. Her academic training is in economics (PhD) and health economics and policy (postdoctoral fellowship). Dr. Libby is an expert on mentored research and faculty development, and co-leads multiple programs funded by federal and philanthropic sources.

All Business is Personal: Health Care Market Dynamics & Employment Outlook for Health Care Workers
Richard Zane, MD
Dr. Richard Zane is Professor and the George B. Boedecker and Boedecker Foundation Endowed Chair of Emergency Medicine. He also serves as the Chief Innovation Officer and Executive Director for Emergency Service for UHealth. He founded the UHealth CARE Innovation Center. He is a national expert and leader in emergency care administration, clinical operations, health care quality, and digital health innovation.

Senior Scientist Moderator
Emmy Betz, MD, MPH
Dr. Emmy Betz is an Associate Professor of Emergency Medicine. She conducts translational research focused on the development and implementation of patient-centered interventions to prevent injuries and promote healthy aging. She is Deputy Director of the Program for Injury Prevention, Research, and Education at the Colorado School of Public Health and a national leader in messaging around sensitive public health topics, including COVID-19.

Questions: Contact Jenni at jenni.koch@cuanschutz.edu