

Schedule 6/27/23

Grant Writing Course Summer 2023 for junior faculty, postdoctoral and clinical fellows

Objective: To provide an opportunity for junior faculty, postdoctoral and clinical fellows in the Department of OB-GYN to acquire knowledge and basic skills in grant writing.

Format: Individual mentoring + small group workshop, meets once a week for 5 weeks with writing assignments to accomplish in between meetings. Adequate time for writing (participant) and reading/providing feedback (mentor) must be available during this period.

Time: August 9 – September 13. Wednesdays 4:30-5:30 pm

Schedule:

Date	Topic	Assignment	Room
August 9	Introduction, Central hypothesis, Specific Aims	Re-Write Specific Aims page Due August 14, 8:00 am	RC2: 3015
August 16	Significance and Innovation Preliminary Data & Research Design	Revision of Specific Aims page Write Significance and Innovation Write Preliminary Data & Research Design Due August 28, 8:00 am	RC2: 3015
August 16 – August 28: Work with your mentor to generate a full proposal. Submit full proposal by August 28, 8:00 am
August 28-30	Schedule individual meetings with Course Director
August 30	Other components of the grant proposal How does a reviewer think? How to avoid the obvious mistakes	Revise and submit full proposal following input at individual meeting. Due September 6	RC2: 3015
September 6-10		Read and critique proposal of the other course participants Due September 11
September 13	Study Section: discussion of all grants		RC2: 3015
After course completion		Revise the full proposal following peer review

Eligibility: Postdoctoral fellows
Clinical fellows
Junior faculty (Instructor, Assistant Professors)

- Must have definite plans to submit a grant proposal within 3-6 months in response to a funding opportunity that the applicant is eligible for.
- Must have formulated a hypothesis/specific scientific question. Some preliminary data is an advantage.
- Must have identified a scientific mentor who is willing to read and provide scientific input on the grant during the course.

Maximum number of participants: 6

Minimum number of participants: 2

Application Deadline: August 1, 2023, 5 pm

Course Application format: 1. Cover Letter with information on the scientific mentor, funding agency and deadline.

2. A letter from the scientific mentor confirming willingness to commit time to provide feedback on the proposal during the course.

3. Preliminary Specific Aims page (NIH format).

Email your application to Thomas.jansson@cuanschutz.edu

Course Director: Thomas Jansson

Course Co-Director: Heather Aldrich

Questions: Contact Thomas Jansson Thomas.jansson@cuanschutz.edu or 4-8622