

Theresa Alpert, Orthotist, Pedorthist

Theresa specialized in lower extremity biomechanics. She is a respected leader in her industry, lecturer, and educator. She holds a faculty appointment at the University of Colorado as the Orthotist at the Foot and Ankle Institute. Created and implemented the DME, O&P division for the orthopedic department. Responsible for training the Residents and Fellows, working with the Gait Lab, and researching and directing patient care. Theresa Alpert completed her orthotics and prosthetics coursework at Northwestern

University in 1987. In addition, she attended Ball State University, Apex University, and Eneslow Pedorthic training. Certified by both the ABC and BOC as an Orthotist and Pedorthist. Alpert has been in private practice for over 30 years. Theresa was the past Chairwoman for (BOC) the Board of Orthotist, Prosthetists, Pedorthics Certification, and Education Chairwoman for the National Shoe Retailers Association. Currently, she is on the Board of Directors for PFA, Pedorthic Footcare Association. Theresa is passionate about helping people each step of the way.

American Board Certified (ABC) Orthotist

Board Certification Orthotics, Prosthetist and Pedorthics (BOCUSA)