

Submission of abstracts and travel award applications for 2019 AIRIG meeting

Submit your abstract to SLB 2019 through the SLB submission site. (Note that you will need to register for the SLB meeting to submit an abstract.)

Information can be found at <https://www.leukocytebiology.org/2019-meeting>.

- 1) To attend AIRIG 2019: Register for the SLB meeting and check participation in the AIRIG (Alcohol and Immunology) Special Interest Group Satellite.
- 2) If you would like to be considered for a short oral presentation at the AIRIG meeting, e-mail your abstract to APR@UCDenver.edu. Include full contact information: name, degree(s), mailing address, e-mail address, and phone number.

To apply for travel awards

- 1) Apply for SLB travel awards or presidential and named junior and senior scientist awards. (Membership in the Society is required.) SLB student and postdoc membership is ~$25.
- 2) Apply for AIRIG travel awards after submitting your SLB abstract and applying for SLB travel awards. E-mail your abstract and travel award request to APR@UCDenver.edu. Include:
 - a. Copy of your first author SLB abstract
 - b. A brief letter requesting travel support
 - c. Your NIH biosketch or Curriculum Vitae
 - d. Indicate if you would like to be considered for an AIRIG short oral presentation.

Eligibility for 2019 AIRIG travel awards

- If eligible for an SLB travel award (students, postdocs, etc.), you must apply for one, and then send above information to APR@UCDenver.edu.
- If not eligible, only minority scientists who are more senior, send above application materials to APR@UCDenver.edu.

Note that you cannot give an oral presentation at both AIRIG and at SLB. You can, however, give an AIRIG talk and present a poster at SLB.
