Clinic Kudos

- 4 "I felt very seen and respected by Dr. Goldner and her fellow. She made me feel safe and heard, which I often struggle with at some doctor's visits. I feel excited and grateful to now be in her care moving forward."
- 4 "Dr Finn is always great and I am a fan of her bringing med students in to learn from her as well. She is knowledgeable, professional and kind."
- *Thank you for your clear explanation of all the tests results and the future tests needed to eliminate or establish results. I appreciate your professionalism I hope to work with you in the future for my health care." -Dr. Turin More
- 4 "This appointment was tough to get, so I was nervous about it going poorly. My worries could not have been farther from the truth. Dr. Choksi listened carefully, asked great questions, and showed an interest in the symptoms I have been experiencing. My issues were not automatically blamed on my age and weight. I have hope I will get some answers soon with the testing that has been ordered."

- 4 "Dr. Griff was very helpful and listened very carefully to me, answering all of my questions and offering helpful advice. I am grateful for her help."
- 4 "Dr. Hammond is easily one of the best providers I've ever worked with. As a disabled trans woman, I've seen many different providers, and he is easily among the best. And I always feel better and receive the best treatment after seeing him."
- 4 "Dr. Turin is amazing. She's so smart, but she is always able to explain things in way that makes sense to me. She's compassionate and responsive. I would highly recommend her! She's a gem!"
- *Mark is the best endocrinologist I've ever seen and I always leave my appointments with him feeling like my concerns have been addressed."
- 4 "Erin Meyerhoff is an amazing provider! She is SO smart, personable, and knowledgeable. She always goes the extra mile to assure that every aspect of my health is addressed, not just my endoorine issues. I dread the thought of he ver retiring!!!!"
- 4 "Almost 2 years now and one of the very best medical providers I have ever had the privilege to work with." –Gretchen Arndt
