NEXT ERA
PERFORMANCE. RECOVERY. REHAB.

PLEASE READ ALL THE WAY THROUGH THIS AD AND FOLLOW THE DIRECTIONS AT THE BOTTOM OF THE PAGE

Next Era Physical Therapy is the premier leader in the management of baseball and softball performance, recovery, and rehab. With locations in Colorado and Arizona we have worked with players from all 30 MLB organizations, numerous D1 programs, and thousands of other college, high school, and youth athletes, in addition to the general population.

We are seeking a highly motivated Doctor of Physical Therapy to join our team in Centennial, CO.

At Next Era Physical Therapy, you will be directly responsible for ensuring an optimal patient journey from the patient's initial evaluation and throughout their plan of care.

We treat using a team approach in a 1:1 direct patient care model with an emphasis on function using principles found within various movement assessments, including, SFMA, FMS, and OnBaseU. Our Doctors focus on manual therapy, including functional dry needling, spinal manipulation, Delfi Blood Flow Restriction and other various soft tissue techniques. Additionally, we are partnered with a local strength and performance facility where we have a satellite office to help meet the needs of our athletes.

Our patient population is 80% athletes of which more than half are high level baseball players who seek our services for performance, recovery and rehab utilizing a direct access model. We also provide services for the general orthopedic population including Medicare, workers compensation, and auto injuries.
