

PHYSICAL THERAPIST — PART-TIME / PRN

$55–$65 Per Hour | Guaranteed 8-Hour Shifts
Choose One to Three Weekdays | Denver, Colorado

Parker Point Medical Center is seeking a Physical Therapist for a flexible outpatient position at our multidisciplinary medical clinic in Denver.

This opportunity is open to both experienced Physical Therapists and new graduates. It is ideal for a clinician who wants competitive compensation, a predictable weekday schedule, individualized patient care, and the ability to focus on treatment without administrative or marketing responsibilities.

POSITION DETAILS

- W-2 compensation: $55–$65 per hour, based on experience
- Independent contractor option: $65 per hour
- Guaranteed pay for the full eight-hour scheduled shift, even if the patient schedule is not completely filled
- Choose one, two, or three consistent weekdays
- Monday and Thursday are preferred, but other weekdays are negotiable
- No weekends, on-call duties, or after-hours responsibilities
- One-on-one outpatient treatment
- Appointments are generally 45–60 minutes
- Approximately 8–10 patients during a fully scheduled eight-hour day
- Front-desk, scheduling, billing, and administrative support provided
- No responsibility for marketing or patient recruitment
- Opportunity to add additional days by mutual agreement

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Perform comprehensive physical therapy evaluations
- Develop and implement individualized plans of care
- Provide evidence-based outpatient physical therapy treatment
- Monitor and document patient progress
- Complete clinical documentation accurately and on time
- Communicate with referring providers and other members of the clinical team when appropriate

QUALIFICATIONS

- Current Colorado Physical Therapist license or eligibility to obtain a Colorado license before beginning independent patient care
- Graduate of an accredited Physical Therapy program
- Experienced Physical Therapists and new graduates are encouraged to apply
- Strong clinical, communication, and patient-care skills

- Reliable, professional, and comfortable providing individualized outpatient care
