Physical Therapist- Pediatric (Early Intervention)

Red Wagon Therapy provides family centered therapy in the natural environment to build milestones during healthy routines. We have a rewarding employment opportunity for a licensed Physical Therapist who is passionate about working with children ages birth to five in the home and school environment. This role would be a great fit for a provider who has a play-based approach and is dedicated to parent empowerment. We will provide support and continued mentorship, as well as opportunities to learn from a team based model.

Responsibilities:

- Maintain a self-directed caseload and child/family communications
- Record documentation
- Provide caregiver education

Requirements:

- Must hold a current PT license
- Pediatric, Early Intervention or school based experience is preferred

We provide:

- Training based on needs and interest
- Collaborative mentoring
- A flexible schedule
- A supportive work environment

Opportunities range from part time to full time. This is an in-home/ community based itinerant position in the Denver, CO area.
