Mobile Outpatient Physical Therapist

New Grads Welcome | Structured Mentorship & Onboarding | Flexible Scheduling

Location: Denver Metro Area | Employment Type: Full-Time / Part-Time / Independent Contractor (1099)

About Us

Roaming Rehab is a locally owned, therapist-led mobile outpatient physical therapy practice redefining how older adults age. We combine evidence-based rehabilitation with a fitness-forward approach to help patients build strength, maintain independence, and thrive beyond traditional rehabilitation. Our team values clinical autonomy, collaboration, and professional growth while delivering meaningful, one-on-one care in patients' homes. Our goal is not just to treat, but to optimize how people age.

Position Overview

We're seeking motivated, fitness-forward Physical Therapists passionate about helping older adults stay strong, active, and independent. New graduates are encouraged to apply! Our structured, individualized onboarding program and ongoing mentorship provide the clinical support and professional development needed to confidently transition into independent practice.

Enjoy flexible scheduling, true 1:1 patient care, and the autonomy to manage your own caseload while maintaining a healthy work-life balance. We're looking for clinicians who value continued learning and believe physical therapy should promote lifelong fitness and wellness

Why Roaming Rehab

- Locally owned, therapist-led practice offering true 1:1 care without high-volume productivity requirements
- 40–75 minute visits with full clinical autonomy
- Flexible scheduling and independence in managing your weekly schedule
- Supportive, collaborative team—you are independent, but never isolated
- Structured, individualized onboarding and ongoing mentorship; new grads welcome!
- Diverse payer mix including private pay, insurance, and wellness services

What You'll Do

- Deliver high-quality, in-home outpatient physical therapy
- Work primarily with active adults, with a strong focus on the 50+ population

- Blend rehabilitation with fitness-forward programming to promote long-term wellness
- Build meaningful, long-term relationships with your patients
- Practice with autonomy while maintaining strong communication with the team

What We're Looking For

- Current Colorado Physical Therapist license or eligibility for Colorado licensure
- Independent, motivated clinician who thrives with autonomy
- Strong clinical reasoning and communication skills
- Passion for working with older adults and promoting active aging
- Interest in fitness-based rehabilitation and wellness services
- Availability for at least 2 weekdays (Monday–Friday)
- Lymphedema certification is a plus, but not required. We are expanding our in-home lymphedema services and welcome clinicians with experience or interest in this specialty.

Compensation & Benefits

- $58-$104 per visit, based on visit type and employment status
- Full-time W2 benefits: Medical, dental, and vision insurance; paid time off (PTO); and 401(k) with employer match
- Part-time W2 benefits: Paid sick leave and 401(k) with employer match
- W2 productivity bonus: Full-time clinicians can earn additional compensation for productivity above 30 visits/week
- Mileage reimbursement between visits for W2 clinicians
- Continuing education support based on employment status
- 1099 Sign-On Bonus: $2,400 total, paid as $400/month for maintaining 20+ visit hours/week during the first 6 months

Equipment Provided

- Laptop; company work phone with hotspot or $30/month cell phone stipend (W2 only); vitals equipment; portable treatment table; and treatment equipment including adjustable kettlebell, balance pad, step, cones, resistance tubing, and more.
