

Cascade Sports PT is seeking to hire a full time physical therapist to join our team of top quality sports physical therapists in the Denver Metro area. Cascade Sports PT is a small privately owned clinic that focuses on providing patient centered care through a team of expert clinicians, one-on-one care, and a friendly staff in a sports-oriented clinic space. We specialize in treating athletes of all ages and abilities, from young adolescents, college, professional and Master's level athletes, our goal is to return our patients to the activities they love. Our therapist team consists of Board Certified Orthopedic and Sports PTs, instructors at CU School of Medicine Physical Therapy Department, and former collegiate and professional athletes. Our clinicians are life-long learners, mentors and collaborators and looking to grow with the right applicant.

Looking for a talented, light hearted and fun, yet professional therapist to join our team. Sports experience is preferred but orthopedic experience is a must. Applicants should be competent and independent, but open to mentorship and team collaboration.

Competitive salary and full benefits available (salary, PTO, continuing education, 401k, health insurance).
