Pelvic Physical Therapist Position

Family-Owned, Nationally Recognized Clinic
Longmont, CO

About Align PT

Align PT is a family-owned, nationally recognized pelvic health and manual therapy clinic based in Longmont, Colorado.

We specialize in treating endometriosis and other complex pelvic, digestive, and musculoskeletal conditions through a whole-body, hands-on approach.

As a cash-based practice, we're free from insurance limitations — allowing hour-long sessions, minimal documentation, and genuine connection with every patient.

Position: Pelvic Floor Physical Therapist

Type: Part-to Full Time (24-32 hours/week)

Compensation: $50-$60 per hour (commensurate with experience; includes $1,500 annual CE benefit and PTO eligibility)

Application Close Date: Open until filled

What We Offer

- Personalized mentorship focused on both clinical mastery and personal growth
- Collaborative, supportive, and fun team culture
- Flexible 24-32 hour schedule
- $1,500 annual continuing-education benefit
- PTO available for ≥ 30 hours
- Cash-based model (no insurance hassles)
- Hour-long treatment sessions = deeper, more meaningful care

Who We're Looking For

We welcome skilled clinicians and motivated newer graduates who are passionate about integrative pelvic health and manual therapy.

Ideal candidates will:

- Have experience or strong interest in pelvic health and complex chronic pain
- Possess excellent manual therapy skills and a desire to refine them through mentorship
- (For new grads:) have completed at least one entry-level pelvic health course and gained hands-on experience through clinicals or training
- Value compassion, authenticity, and a collaborative learning environment
- Bonus: Experience or interest in visceral mobilization, dry needling, and cranial techniques is a plus (and will fit beautifully within our whole-body approach)

Mentorship and Professional Growth

You'll train directly with a clinician recognized for advanced pelvic and manual therapy work--in a supportive, one-on-one mentorship setting that encourages curiosity, confidence, and clinical excellence.

We're deeply committed to helping each PT grow as both a clinician and a person.
