

Now Hiring!

What motivates YOU? ESPR is motivated by a strong, energetic, professional work culture that will allow both our clinic and our staff to grow, while maintaining a happy work/life balance.

Endurance Sports and Rehab is now looking for a committed physical therapist who loves what they do, and who looks forward to being part of our community's well-being by giving extraordinary 1:1 care to each patient they treat.

The perfect candidate should expect ESPR to fully support their professional development through CEU's and mentorships.

Also understand that we care about your financial growth and offer competitive pay, matching retirement contributions, and student loan repayment options.

If you are ready to enjoy being the therapist you always wanted to be, working alongside a team of experienced therapists, then now is your time to start your new beginning.

ESPR is a reputable private practice, owned and operated by physical therapists! We treat a wide variety of orthopedic and post-surgical patients, and are a patient first, friendly clinic that will provide a low stress work environment. Come grow with us!

Candidates must possess strong manual skills, good time management, and exceptional patient rapport.

New grads welcome to apply!

We are seeking Full or Part Time work. Full time annual salary $70,000-85,000. Retirement, PTO, holidays, health insurance, health savings account, CEU's, flexible schedule.

Contact us today via email, or phone call so we can learn more about you, and give you the opportunity to learn about us.
