FYZICAL Louisville is for you, if want to be part of a growing business in a small-town atmosphere which was voted among the best places to live 5 out of the last 10 years Fyzical Louisville is for you.

You will work in an exciting and dynamic environment, with outstanding physical resources and equipment, as well as a clinical and administrative support staff that will help you effectively treat patients while maintaining a healthy work/life balance.

FYZICAL is a nationwide group of over 400 independently owned physical therapy clinics, with a focus on orthopedic and vestibular rehabilitation. Our people are our greatest asset – we hire therapists who are professional and enthusiastically embrace advances in research, technology, science and health care. In exchange, our teams enjoy a superb working environment, as well as unique and exciting possibilities for personal and professional growth. If you want to be the best at what you do and be rewarded for it, you have found the right place!

- We are located in Christopher Plaza at the intersection of South Boulder Road and Hwy 42 (96th Street).
- Experience or interest in treating balance and vestibular patients, including sports concussion; for therapists with orthopedic expertise but limited vestibular/balance background, additional training and continuing education will be provided.
