Nursing Fellowship in Developmental Disabilities 2021-22

JFK Partners, Colorado's University Center of Excellence in Developmental Disabilities Education, Research and Service (UCEDD) and Leadership Education in Neurodevelopmental Disabilities (LEND) Program is offering a 10-month LEND Fellowship to begin Aug, 2021.

The training emphasizes an interdisciplinary approach to assessment, intervention, research, family support, service coordination, and community integration to meet the needs of persons with developmental disabilities. Goals of the program include development of disciplinary and interdisciplinary expertise, including clinical growth, as well as skills in the areas of consultation, leadership, and research.

The Advanced Practice Nursing LEND Fellow participates in interdisciplinary evaluations, interventions and consultation of individuals with a wide range of developmental disabilities, with an emphasis on working with individuals with Autism Spectrum Disorder. The fellow also attends courses offered by JFK Partners and is expected to pursue a research project or scholarly activity in developmental disabilities.

Eligibility: Applicants admitted to (or having completed) one of the following graduate programs will be considered: PhD, DNP, DNP-MPH Dual Degree/DNP PHN Specialty, Nurse Practitioner (Psychiatric Mental Health, Pediatric, Acute Care, Family) and Clinical Nurse Specialist. Must be available to take coursework on Tuesdays (Sept-Apr) and attend a Leadership Course (daily for 2 weeks in July/Aug 2021 from 2:00-5:00 pm). Only candidates with US citizenship may be considered.

JFK Partners is committed to the recruitment of culturally diverse individuals. Bilingual Spanish-speaking applicants and all other qualified applicants are encouraged to apply.

Support: A stipend for this graduate level, part-time (12-hours/week) position is available. ($500/mo for 10-11 mos). Courses undertaken during the fellowship are eligible to be considered as potential electives for the MPH or DNP Nursing Programs. This fellowship position and funding are contingent upon JFK Partners receiving grant funding.
