

Public Health Fellowship in Developmental Disabilities 2021-22

JFK Partners, Colorado's University Center of Excellence in Developmental Disabilities Education, Research and Service (UCEDD) and Leadership Education in Neurodevelopmental Disabilities (LEND) Program is offering a 10-month Public Health Fellowship to begin August, 2021.

The training emphasizes an interdisciplinary approach to assessment, intervention, research, family support, service coordination, and community integration to meet the needs of persons with developmental disabilities. Goals of the program include development of disciplinary and interdisciplinary expertise, including clinical growth, as well as skills in the areas of consultation, leadership, and research.

The Public Health Fellow participates in interdisciplinary evaluations, interventions and consultation of individuals with a wide range of developmental disabilities, with an emphasis on working with individuals with Autism Spectrum Disorder. The fellow also attends courses offered by JFK Partners and is expected to pursue a research project or scholarly activity in developmental disabilities.

Eligibility: Applicants must have received graduate degree (Master's) in Public Health, or be matriculated in a Public Health graduate program. Must be available to take coursework on Tuesdays (Sept-May) and attend a Leadership Course (daily for 2 weeks in July/Aug 2021 from 2:00-5:00 pm). Only candidates with US citizenship may be considered.

JFK Partners is committed to the recruitment of culturally and ethnically diverse individuals. Bilingual Spanish-speaking applicants, and all other qualified applicants, are encouraged to apply.

Program Description: The Public Health Fellowship typically includes the following: learning about specialized clinical training (assessment, treatment, consultation) in developmental disabilities with an emphasis on Autism Spectrum Disorder or other Developmental Disabilities, research, and didactics (seminars, workshops, observations in various settings).

Support: Compensation for this graduate level, part-time (12-hours/week) position is $500 per month. This fellowship position and funding are contingent upon JFK Partners receiving grant funding.
