

National Assistance Programs available to Bleeding Disorder Patients

This is an overview of financial assistance programs available to the bleeding disorders community. Please carefully review the available programs as you may not qualify for each program (Some assistance programs ask that your bleeding disorder or acute bleeds have impacted your ability to work resulting in loss of wages etc.).

Full detail regarding these programs can be found on their respective websites.

Hope for Hemophilia

Hope for Hemophilia is a financial assistance program for a variety of emergency needs. We encourage you visit their website for details regarding their financial assistance program and to apply. From their homepage click “Applications” to apply. After application, please notify Bryn or DeEtta (contact information below) so the required HTC referral form can be completed promptly.

Colburn-Keenan Foundation

The Colburn-Keenan Foundation helps with emergency financial assistance for a number of items (utility bill, medical bill, auto repairs, home repairs etc.). Their application can take extra time to complete. From their homepage <https://colkeen.org/> click on “Individual Grant Program” for application. Please pay specific attention to the list of supporting documentation necessary for application. When application and all documentation is complete, please forward to Bryn or DeEtta who will write the requested HTC letter of support.
